FINAL WORD ON NAVAL WARFARE

United States Will Soon Reply to German Note.

CONSIDER PLEDGES BROKEN

Admission by Berlin That German Submarines Recently Torpedoed Three Merchant Ships, Carrying American Citizens, May Result in Some Vigorous Action.

Washington, April 13.—Admission by Germany that her submarines recently attacked three merchant ships, carrying American citizens, and that one of them torpedoed a vessel in the vicinity of the point where the channel steamer Sussex was damaged by explosion, has simplified the task of the state department in preparing for the next step of the United States in the issue over submarine warfare.

Following the receipt of cabled press dispatches of the latest German note it became known that the United States would continue to compile information indicating that German submarines are operating in violation of the rules of international law and that very soon a communication, designed to be the final word of the American government on the subject, would go forward to Berlin.

The state department virtually has completed the collection of facts relating to all attacks on merchant ships since the Lusitania.

More Evidence on the Way.

Further evidence in the case of the Sussex, forwarded by the American embassies at London and Paris, is to arrive on the liner St. Paul Friday. It is understood that instructions to Ambassador Gerard, accompanied by the information gathered by the department, will go forward soon thereafter.

The unofficial text of the note from Germany was communicated to President Wilson and Secretary Lansing.

The official text was expected hourly. It will be considered by the cabinet at its regular meeting on Friday.

Officials made it clear that whatever might be the form of the instructions to Ambassador Gerard the purpose of the document to be handed the German government would be to give notice that the United States considers it has a great array of evidence tending to prove that, in spite of the reiterated assurances and pledges given by Germany, peaceful merchant ships carrying American citizens or which might have some aboard, continue to be the victims of illegal attacks.

Officials said the statements in the German note would be very carefully examined and compared with the evidence already before the state department in preparing the case of the United States.

Submarine in the Vicinity.

In view of the admission that a German submarine was in the vicinity when the Sussex was attacked and the array of evidence pointing to the conclusion that it was torpedoed little doubt is felt here, as to responsibility for that disaster, despite the explanation that a sketch made by the submarine commander of a ship he torpedoed did not correspond with the description of the Sussex.

There is no disposition on the part of President Wilson and Secretary Lansing to enter into a debate on the submarine issue with Germany. It is declared that the principles contended for by the United States in a series of notes have been made very clear and that Germany has been sufficiently warned that further attacks in violation of international law would be considered deliberately unfriendly acts.

The possibility of a break in diplomatic relations with Germany, coupled with an exposition of the situation by the president to congress, is constantly in the background, but the president was represented as being earnestly desirous of avoiding such a step if possible and determined not to act hastily.

COUPONS FOR ALL OR NONE

This Is Ruling of Treasury Department Regarding Premiums.

Washington, April 13.—Manufacturers of snuff, tobacco, cigars and cigarettes face leaving out gift cards and premium coupons, altogether, or putting them in all shipments, including those to states which have passed laws prohibiting the practice.

The treasury department, in an order made public, holds that unless such cards or coupons are included in all shipments regardless of destination, the practice comes within the law forbidding lotteries, because consumers in localities where premiums are omitted would not have the same opportunity to obtain valuable prizes as those in more favored localities.

RICHARD H. DAVIS.

Author and War Correspondent Dies Suddenly.

RICHARD HARDING
DAVIS IS DEAD

Mount Kisco, N. Y., April 13.—Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent, died at his home here from heart trouble. His body was found several hours later and he apparently had been stricken while at his telephone.

He had gone into his library to dictate a telegram to a friend in New York city. His wife assumed, when he did not return, that he had seated himself to read and did not visit the library for several hours.

Mr. Davis had been in failing health for some time and had sought quiet at his country place, Cross Roads Farm, under the care of his wife, who was Bessie McCoy, the actress.

Mr. Davis, one of the most popular of American writers, a playwright also, and a veteran correspondent of five wars, including the present, was born in Philadelphia in 1864, the son of L. Clarke Davis and Rebecca Harding Davis, also a writer.

FIVE MINNESOTA MEN PUT ON NAVAL BOARD

St. Paul, April 13.—Five Minnesota men, it was announced, have been chosen associate members of the naval consulting board of the United States, of which Thomas A. Edison is chairman.

The men, all trained engineers, are the Minnesota directors of the organization for industrial preparedness, a branch of the naval consulting board. Under their direction a complete industrial census of Minnesota, from the standpoint of the state's industrial possibilities in times of war, will be made next month.

The Minnesotans, each of them selected as the result of the recommendations of national engineering organizations, are:

William L. Darling, chief engineer Northern Pacific, St. Paul.

H. V. Winchell, mining engineer, Minneapolis.

J. J. Flather, professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Minnesota.

William N. Ryerson, general manager Great Northern Power company, Duluth.

G. B. Frankforter, dean of school of chemistry, University of Minnesota.

KILLED BY RUNAWAY HORSE

Minneapolis Divine Served Many Years in Swedish Riksdag.

Minneapolis, April 13.—Rev. David Holmgren, former member of the Swedish riksdag, political writer and for thirty years a minister in Sweden, is dead at his home, the victim of a street accident. While he was walking near his home, reading a newspaper, a runaway horse dashed into him and injured him so seriously that he died shortly after being taken to the city hospital. He was seventy years of age.

During the latter part of his residence in Sweden, Rev. Mr. Holmgren led an eventful political life. While pastor of a state Lutheran church in Verhem, Western Gotland, he represented his district in the lower house of the Swedish congress for fifteen years.

He was a leader of the ultraliberal wing and advocated many reforms. His views became so widely at variance with those of the government that he resigned and came to the United States in 1903.

MANY MEN KILLED ON BOTH SIDES AT PARREL

Fatal Clash Between Mexican and the American Troops at Parrel, Mexico

Washington, April 13.—The Mexican embassy announces that many were killed on both sides at Parrel, when Carranza's troops fired on American soldiers.

Mexican Situation is Most Critical

El Paso, April 13.—Army officers consider the situation in Mexico as the most critical since the expedition began, the danger being in its lines of communication which are 400 miles long with inadequate guards. The troops have suffered a lack of proper clothing but are not complaining. Officials have privately stated. With the rainy season coming on the Americans must have free use of the Mexican railways or withdraw from the country.

Carranza Soldiers Took Part in Shooting

San Antonio, April 13.—Later dispatches indicate plainly that Carranza soldiers participated in attacking American troops marching through Parrel. The Carranza commander reporting the shooting complained because the Americans were so far south, and indicated that he would have resisted the Americans had he known they were so far south.

U. S. not Willing to Take Out Troops

Washington, April 13.—A high administration official told the United Press that the United States was not willing to agree to the Carranza demands to take the United States troops from Mexico.

Mexican Ambassador Declines to Discuss

Washington, April 13.—The Mexican ambassador declined to discuss General Carranza's note concerning the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico. He stated the official text was being translated and would be delivered to the state department as soon as finished.

Carranza's Note Not an Ultimatum

Washington, April 13.—The Mexican embassy says that Carranza's note is in no sense an ultimatum, but merely a request for negotiations looking toward withdrawal.

Mexicans Fire On U. S. Troops

San Antonio, April 13.—The American consular dispatches say that Mexican citizens at Parrel fired a number of shots at the American troops when they marched into the city, but that no casualties occurred.

Yeggmen Make Haul at Barnesville

Barnesville, April 13.—It is officially admitted that the yeggmen yesterday got eight hundred dollars in stamps and four hundred dollars in cash.

U. S. Face to Face Serious Situation

Washington, April 13.—The United States officials are face to face with a serious situation by the communication of Carranza to Secretary Lansing, a note that it is already time to treat with the United States forces for the withdrawal of their forces from our territory.

Is not a Success Until Villa is Killed

San Antonio, April 13.—Gen. Funston will never consider the punitive expedition a military success until Villa is killed or captured. Official word regarding Gen. Carranza's request to evacuate has not been received.

Troops Will Continue Until Villa Run Down

San Antonio, April 13.—Prepared for any event the American troops will continue the chase until Villa is killed or captured, or the war department orders them to stop the chase, Gen. Funston states. He denied that the advanced troops were endangered through the poorly guarded lines of communication.

Conclusive Evidence Germans Torpedoed

Washington, April 13.—Officials say the evidence that a German submarine torpedoed the Sussex is clinched by the admission in the German note that an unidentified steamer was torpedoed, and the British declaration that no other steamer was in the channel at the same time, and the French statement that it has the names of the submarine crew attacking the Sussex.

HAVE NAMES OF OFFICERS AND CREW ATTACK SUSSEX

Paris, April 13.—An official dispatch says that the French government has the names of the officers and crew of the German submarine that attacked the Sussex, and 13 fragments of the torpedo that wrecked that vessel.

POSITIVE PROOF OF IDENTITY

London, April 13.—British officials who have seen the German reply state that there is positive proof that the unidentified steamer the Germans admit torpedoing was the Sussex.

FRENCH STOP GERMANS

Paris, April 13.—The Germans made the first direct attack on Hill 304 late yesterday afternoon. A curtain of fire from the French guns stopped the assault.

Governor Burnquist Announces Candidacy

St. Paul, April 13.—Gov. Burnquist has practically announced his candidacy for governor. An informal committee has been voluntarily formed and has opened headquarters to boost his prospects, without his knowledge. This afternoon he was informed of the arrangement and he accepted the efforts of his friends and promised co-operation.

Smith and Pickitt Second Class Prisoners

St. Paul, April 13.—Smith and Pickitt must enter the penitentiary as second grade prisoners on the board of pardon ruled. They must have their hair cut and be unprivileged in any way. After six months they become eligible to promotion then subject to parole.

Will Act With Utmost Caution

Berlin, April 13.—The newspapers here anticipate that the United States will act with the utmost caution in the Sussex case on account of the German note. It is reported that the United States is satisfied the Sussex was torpedoed, but the newspapers think the German official statement convincing.

Clear for Show Down Says Germany Guilty

Washington, April 13.—The tables are all clear for a show down in the German submarine issue. Germany claims she is not liable for a breach of faith in the recent channel attacks, while reports at hand at the department of state shows she is liable.

THREE MEN ACCUSED OF DYNAMITE PLOTS

New York, April 13.—Four men charged with complicity in manufacturing "fire bombs" which were placed aboard ships carrying munitions and supplies to the entente allies were arrested here by agents of the department of justice, acting in concert with the New York police.

Three of the suspects are employees of German steamship lines. They are accused of having been involved with others not yet in custody of fomenting a plot, widespread in its ramifications, for the destruction of merchantmen.

The men under arrest are: Ernest Becker, thirty-two, born in Germany, electrician on the steamer Kaiser Frederick der Grosse.

Captain Charles von Kleist, sixty-seven years old, born in Germany, superintendent of New Jersey Agriculture and Chemical Company of Hoboken, N. J.

Captain Otto Wolpert, forty-four years old, superintendent of the Atlas line piers of the Hamburg-American line.

USING BIG GUNS AGAINST FRENCH

Germans Paving the Way for Infantry Attacks.

TERRIFIC SHOWER OF SHELLS

Southwest of Verdun the Teutons Are Preparing to Assault French Positions Barring Their Way to the Fortress—Canadians Inflict Heavy Casualties on the Enemy.

London, April 13.—The Germans northwest of Verdun evidently are holding in leash their infantry fire for fresh attacks in their endeavors to capture Hill 304 and Le Mort Homme, key points which are tenaciously barring their way to the fortress.

The infantry has remained idle in their trenches while the big guns are showering shells on the region embracing the triangle formed by Hill 304, Esnes and Le Mort Homme. Not even a sally by the Germans in this district is reported in the latest French official communication.

Comparative quiet prevails to the east of the Meuse around Douaumont and Vaux, where there has been such vicious fighting. No infantry attacks have been made by either side and the activity of the artillery has been less marked than on previous days.

Mining operations and grenade fighting have taken place in the Argonne forest, during which the French captured the southern edges of two craters near Les Courtes Chaussees.

The Germans along the Pikelm-Ypres road after three attacks invaded British trenches, but were quickly expelled from them, while the British successfully raided German trenches near Richebourg L-Avoue. The British official communication says the Canadians in their gallant fighting during the past week have inflicted heavy losses on the Germans near St. Eloi.

LID ON SOCIALIST PAPERS

Party in Germany Extends Censorship Put on the Vorwaerts.

Berlin, April 13.—The crisis in the Socialist party has led to disciplinary measures against the provincial party press.

In addition to the establishment by the party of a censorship on the Vorwaerts, two editors of a Socialist organ at Duisburg, which attacked the position of the majority faction, have been discharged and the editor of the Volkszeitung at Koenigsberg, which is in the district of Hugo Haase, former president of the Socialist party, has been disciplined.

USUAL SUBMARINE WARFARE

Germany Is Not Using Larger Divers in Operations.

London, April 13.—The Germans are not using either supersubmarines or underwater boats without periscopes in their new campaign, according to the best informed navy authorities here.

It is pointed out in naval sources that German submarines are following their usual course and that there is no evidence that they are able to travel greater distances than previously was the case or to stay out longer.

FRANCE ASSURES HOLLAND

Entente Allies Never Intended to Attack Its Neutrality.

The Hague, April 13.—The French minister to Holland, on behalf of France, has given Holland the assurance that neither France nor her allies ever contemplated, directly or indirectly, attacking the neutrality of Holland or the inviolability of its territory.

$500,000 FROM APPAM CARGO

Cocoa, Cotton Seed and Corn Aboard German Prize Ship Sold.

Newport News, Va., April 13.—The cargo of the German prize ship Appam was sold here under court order by federal authorities because of its perishable nature. More than $500,000 worth of cocoa, cotton seed and corn was sold.

WILSON TO BACK BRANDEIS

President Is Determined to Stand Behind the Nomination.

Washington, April 13.—President Wilson, it was learned, is determined to stand behind the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis as associate justice of the supreme court, in spite of reports of determined opposition among members of the senate.

Officials said the president would not consider withdrawing the nomination.

This photograph, taken in the field with the punitive expedition into Mexico, shows General Pershing, the commander, sending by wireless the despatch which told of Colonel Dodd's great dash after Villa, and the battle in which sixty of the bandit's followers were killed.

Minnesota Board Declines to Extend Clemency.

St. Paul, April 13.—Walter J. Smith, former state treasurer, must put on the garb of a convict in Stillwater prison and begin serving his sentence for the crime of grand larceny, to which he pleaded guilty after sensational exposures of irregularities in his office. The state board of pardons, which heard pleas for the former official Monday, announced that it had denied his application.

The application of R. C. Pickit, former investment board clerk, and Mr. Smith's accomplice in the transactions, also was denied.

Both men are in the Ramsey county jail, where they have been held since their sentence April 4, awaiting the outcome of their petition.

Decision of the board was made in executive session and was announced without comment. "We have no statement to make," said Governor J. A. Burnquist. "The cases were treated the same as any others."

More than 500 telegrams urging clemency for Smith were received by the board members.

Could we stand upon the edge of a gorge a mile and a half in depth that had been cut out of the solid rock by a tiny stream scarcely visible at the bottom of this terrible abyss and were we informed that this little streamlet was able to wear off annually only one-tenth of an inch from its rocky bed, what would our conception be of the prodigious length of time that the stream must have taken to excavate the gorge? We should certainly feel startled on finding that the stream had performed this enormous amount of work in something less than a million years.—London Tit-Bits.

When you buy a Studebaker, you SAVE from $250 to $400

This $250 to $400 represents the difference between the price of a Studebaker and the price of any other car that equals it in value.

The reasons for this difference are immaterial to you as a buyer. What you WANT is the car that gives the most for its price.

And when you find, as you will, that cars with the same power, size and quality that the SERIES 17 Studebaker offer cost hundreds of dollars more, make the salesman tell you WHY.

If a car gives no more, there's no reason at all for paying a higher price, is there? Just see these SERIES Studebakers. Make your own comparisons with other cars then ask the other salesmen why THEY want from $250 to $400 more than the Studebaker prices? Thirty minutes spent in making such comparisons will save you several hundred dollars.

REV. A. B. COLVIN WAS THE SPEAKER

Swedish Baptist Church Filled at Union Revival Meeting Held on Wednesday Evening

THE QUARTET SANG PLEASINGLY

Rev. J. P. Welliver of Mildred, offered the opening prayer—Sermon on "Modern Excuses"

Rev. A. B. Colvin of the Swedish Baptist church, spoke last night at the Union Evangelistic service. There was an excellent number of people present, the church was well filled both in the main room and the prayer meeting department.

A quartet consisting of Mrs. Brand and Miss Anna Michaelson, Dr. E. E. Long and Rev. E. P. Brand furnished a special number. Miss Michaelson sang a solo. Dr. Long, choir director is preparing special music for this evening.

The sermon tonight will be preached by Rev. W. J. Lowrie. He will have for his theme "The Judgment." The time of service is 7:45 at the American Baptist church.

Rev. J. P. Welliver of Mildred, was present last night and offered the opening prayer. He is a colporteur of the American Bible society and spoke briefly of the work of the society.

Rev. Colvin spoke on the text Luke fourteen—eighteen, "And they all with one consent began to make excuse." His subject was "Modern Excuses."

He said that there are no reasons for men today rejecting the gospel invitation but there are many excuses offered. Some of them were that "there was plenty of time," "Couldn't hold out," "There are so many hypocrites in the church," "I'm not so very bad, not all I might be but yet not so very far wrong after all," "I'm just as good as the church members," "I'm not good enough."

All of these the preacher labelled as mere excuses which would not meet the test of the judgment. God is sufficient to save to the uttermost and is willing to accept any one who comes in the way that He has ordained.

The sermon was an able exposition of the way that God deals with man for his salvation, and was well received by the large audience.

CLUB TREAT ON FRIDAY EVENING

Miss Agnes Berry, Soprano, to Sing for Brainerd Musical Club Evening of April 14

MISS PUTMANN ACCOMPANIST

Miss Berry is a Substitute for the Zoellner Quartet Which Cancelled its Engagement

Miss Agnes Berry, noted soprano, will give a recital at the Brainerd Musical club on the occasion of their "Club Treat" Friday evening, April 14, at Elks hall. Her accompanist will be Miss Alma Putmann, who played so creditably for Edward Clarke of Chicago, when the latter sang here.

Miss Berry is a substitute for the Zoellner quartet, which this season cancelled its engagement to play in Brainerd, having discontinued their entire western tour.

Harry Culbertson, Chicago manager, states that Miss Berry is a high priced artist. He has words of praise for her artistic ability. It is hoped the Musical club and their friends will appreciate the efforts made to secure the best of talent.

Members will be admitted on their membership tickets. Non-members will be charged 50c, music students 25c. It is the last program of the season and a large attendance is anticipated. The program follows:

- (a) "Le Mariage de Rose".....Franck
- (b) "O, quand je dors".....Liszt
- (c) Ariette, "Were I Sunshine, I would Come".....Vidal
- (a) Air, "Il Siretto do Suanana".....Wolf-Ferrari

- (a) "Birthday".....Woodman
- (b) "Kiss Waltz".....Ardie
- (c) "I Hear a Thrush at Eve".....Cadman

LITTLE PINE

Miss Jennie Mickelson visited Miss Christine Sydes Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Sydes and little son, Norman, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Newman.

The roads between Emily and Little Pine are nearly impassable especially with a sleigh. Anne Mattson, Minnie Stone and Will Chord tried them last Saturday.

Sunday Miss Stone, Will Chord and baby Norman Sydes had dinner at Peterson's. We had the usual good time, of course.

Mr. Ernest formerly of Lake Benton has been visiting at Peterson's over Sunday. He returned to his home Tuesday.

The Pine Grove club had its second meeting the 7th of April with the following program:

DEMOCRATS WANT T. R. NOMINATED

But Republicans Foresee Contest at Chicago Convention.

CAMPAIGN TO BE MILITANT

Warlike Preparations and Pronounced Americanism to Be Leading Features. Leaders Realize This Will Capture Many Young Men, But Fear the Older Citizens Will Offset It.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 13.—[Special.]—The Democrats have picked the nomination of the Republicans at Chicago. They do not seem to have any doubt about it and assert that Roosevelt is sure to be nominated.

The Republicans are not all agreed, but they do think there is going to be something of a contest before the nomination is settled. They are not sure that the delegates are going to be stampeded, yet they see the class of men such as will compose the delegates, senators and representatives, either flirting with or openly declaring for Roosevelt. That is why the Republicans have begun to take stock of conditions that may prevail in case Roosevelt is the nominee.

A Militant Campaign.

One thing has been made clear, and that is that it will be a militant campaign, one breathing of warlike preparation and of pronounced Americanism. That Roosevelt would make his campaign an attack upon the Wilson foreign policies and demand that a more aggressive policy on the part of the United States be inaugurated there can be no doubt. War would be felt in the speeches, and the rights of Americans would be the paramount issue.

While the Republican leaders believe that such a campaign would capture a large number of voters, they are in some doubt as to the general effect. They know that the first voters, the young men, would be likely to turn to Roosevelt in such a campaign, but they fear the result on another class.

The Home Sentiment.

"It is all right to talk about the enthusiasm which a militant campaign will inspire among the first presidential voters," remarked one of the shrewd Republican senators, "but how about the home folks, the people who do not want their boys drafted or enlisted in a war? The horrors of the European war and awful destruction of young men have sunk pretty deep into the minds of many people. The mothers will see to it that fathers vote against a man who might bring war upon the country."

So there are two sides to all these questions of naming a candidate.

The Naming Candidate.

A long time ago, when Jim Tawney was the watchdog of the treasury and was fighting naval appropriations, he made the statement that 70 per cent of our revenues were expended for wars past or wars in prospect. He meant the military establishments and pensions. Well, that old statement is drawn forth every year and paraded through the halls of congress. We are hearing about it in the present preparedness discussions. If Tawney is no longer a pacifist, that declaration he made long ago must be annoying.

Young Jim Wadsworth.

I suppose that as long as James W. Wadsworth, Sr., lives the junior senator from New York will be known as young Jim Wadsworth. But what I was going to say is that young Jim Wadsworth surprised the senate the other day by making a ten minute speech on the military bill in which he showed knowledge and sense. More than a dozen senators referred to that speech in complimentary terms.

River and Harbor Bill.

The slow manner in which the river and harbor bill was put through the house may mean that this measure is far from being as popular as in former days. The talk of "pork" that goes with such measures has tended to make it look less inviting than in former years. Then there is another thought in connection with the measure. There is Kenyon of Iowa, who became a skilled filibuster under Burton's tutelage, and he is laying for that river and harbor bill with his ax.

Vehicle For Ideas.

Without saying anything about the transformation of John Sharp Williams from the most intense pacifist to the most militant of men it is interesting to note that he has now pronounced views in favor of what he thinks is the best kind of military establishment. In a recent speech on the army bill he said:

"Everybody seems to be using this bill as a vehicle whereby to transport into public attention some favorite idea of his own. I want to bring out one of mine. I think that every state university in this Union can be turned into a West Point for the purpose of training officers and at an expense of not more than $20,000 or $30,000 for each state."

Gets Stuff in the Record.

In spite of the watchful Smoot and other guardians of the Congressional Record Senator Myers gets in a lot of stuff day after day. His Montana friends can read their productions in the Journal of congressional proceedings almost every day.

Blue Ribbon Steel Cut Coffee

is a delicious, mild drink that has that rich brown color you don't get in most of coffees. It is an excellent blend of the best South American coffee obtainable, and is packed only in tin foil packages. If we were to pack this coffee in cans, we would not be able to give you the following beautiful articles, as the cans in most of the coffees, cost from 4c to 6c per pound, and they are worthless as they are thrown away as soon as the coffee is consumed.

Be sure to save the wrappers from Blue Ribbon Coffee and Blue Ribbon Uncolored Japan Tea, as they are valuable in getting the following articles:

- Ten empty bags and 80c—Porcelain Rice Boiler
- Ten empty bags and 70c—Porcelain Pail
- Ten empty bags and 70c—Porcelain Dish Pan
- Ten empty bags and 40c—Porcelain Mixing Bowl
- Ten empty bags and 60c—Porcelain Oblong Baking Pan
- Ten empty bags and 65c—Aluminum 4 qt. Preserve Kettle
- Ten empty bags and 70c—Aluminum 6 qt. Preserve Kettle
- Ten empty bags and 70c—Aluminum Berlin Kettle
- Ten empty bags and 75c—Aluminum Coffee Pot
- Ten empty bags and 80c—Aluminum Rice Boiler
- Ten empty bags and 85c—Aluminum Percolator
- Ten empty bags and $1.30—Aluminum Tea Kettle

If your grocer does not handle Blue Ribbon coffees or Blue Ribbon Tea phone us, and we will advise you where you can purchase them.

STATE GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES AND THEIR HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

(Prepared by the Minnesota Historical Society for the United Press)

Carver County
 Minnesota would have been very remiss had she failed to name a county for Jonathan Carver, the first Englishman to visit the region. Carver was a Connecticut Yankee who undertook to explore the northwest after its acquisition from France in 1783 and spent the winter of 1766-67 with the Sioux on the Minnesota river. Later he published an account of his "Travels," the reliability of which is still a bone of contention among historians.

After Carver's death a deed was produced purporting to be a grant to him by the Indians of a large tract of land including most of St. Paul and part of Minneapolis. Although invalid in English law and rejected by congress, claims under this deed have been advanced again and only a few months ago certain property owners in Minneapolis were embarrassed by the filing of a mortgage said to be based on this deed.

FOR A GREATER BRAINERD

The filing of the incorporation papers of the Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. marks another step in the progress of the gas company of A. G. Whitney and associates of St. Cloud and the fact that the principal place of business will be in Brainerd assures to this city the payment of its taxes in Brainerd. The announcement is made that construction work will soon be under way. Brainerd is glad to welcome this utility company to this city. It means more payrolls and the purchase of supplies in this city.

In Northeast Brainerd engines are chugging, steam shovels operating and an army of men is working at the site of the paper and pulp mill of The Northwest Paper Co., a great industry which will be in operation next year and will add to Brainerd large payrolls, while even now thousands of dollars are expended for construction work. Much supplies are bought in Brainerd.

Out at Pillager the Cuyuna Range Power Co. is building its second dam, doubling its present capacity, the dam being a duplicate of the one on the Crow Wing river. Most of the supplies and material used by the Grant-Smith Construction Co. are bought in Brainerd.

The Draughton business college is about to institute a school in Brainerd drawing on Brainerd and the iron range for scholars and thus bringing to this city many pupils who will make their home in Brainerd.

The Northern Pacific railway shops, backbone of Brainerd, have worked full time and contributed to the prosperity of Brainerd.

Every organization and agency of this city is doing its part to boost and build "A Greater Brainerd."

Loans Seem to Weaken It.

A. (to man he has touched)—Thanks, old chap. But what is this little pamphlet you handed me? B.—Oh, I always hand one of those out with a loan. It tells how to strengthen the memory.—Boston Transcript.

Certificate of Incorporation Of Brainerd Gas and Electric Company.

We, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter fifty-eight (58) of the General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, and any amendments thereof, do hereby associate ourselves as a body corporate, and do hereby adopt the following Certificate of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of the corporation shall be Brainerd Gas and Electric Company, and the general nature of the business for which it is organized is: to manufacture, generate and otherwise produce, acquire, buy, store, sell, deal in, transmit, dispose of and distribute electricity and electric current for supplying the public with light, heat and power; to construct, install, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, electric light, heat and power plants and machinery, apparatus and devices for the manufacture, production, generation, storage, transmission, disposal of and distribution of electricity and electric current for supplying the public with light, heat and power; to manufacture, generate and otherwise produce, acquire, buy, store, sell, deal in, transmit, dispose of and distribute gas, both natural and artificial, and either or both, for supplying the public with light, heat and power, and also with the by-products and residual products therefrom;

to construct, install, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, gas plants, machinery, apparatus and devices for the manufacture, production, storage, transmission, disposal of and distribution of gas for supplying the public with light, heat and power; to build, lay, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, pipe lines and gas mains for the sale, distribution, disposal, transportation of gas, both natural and artificial, and either or both, for supplying the public with light, heat and power, in, over, through and under any streets, alleys, highways, territories and pieces and parcel of land in counties, townships, cities, towns and villages and in, over, through and under any public and private property;

to manufacture, generate, otherwise produce, acquire, buy, store, sell and deal in, transmit, dispose of and distribute, steam, water and compressed air for supplying the public with light, heat and power, to produce and furnish light, heat and power by any process obtained from any substance, process or product now known or used or that may be hereafter discovered or invented, or that may be utilized for supplying the public with light, heat or power; to construct, install, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, any plants, machinery, apparatus, devices and works for the production, generation, storage, transmission, disposal of and distribution of, for the purpose of supplying the public with light, heat and power by any such process or from any such substance or product obtained and produced, and to construct, install, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, such light, heat and power for supplying the public therewith, to manufacture, buy, sell, rent and deal in motors, machinery, apparatus and devices calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the consumption or use of electricity and electric current, artificial gas, natural gas, steam, water, compressed air and any other substance and product for supplying the public with light, heat and power;

to buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, rights, water power, water privileges, for use in connection with the generation and distribution of electricity and electrical energy and other energy for light, heat and power for public use;

to construct, install, buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, improve, maintain, operate, operate under lease or other disposition of, telegraph lines and telephone poles for public use, and any interest therein and grants therefor, and all electrical and other instruments, machinery, contrivances, materials and things of every kind and nature pertaining thereto, as well as works, plants, buildings or conveniences appertaining thereto;

to buy, purchase, lease, otherwise acquire, hold, enjoy, licenses in respect of letters patent of the United States or any foreign country, patents, patent rights, licenses, privileges, inventions, improvements and processes, trade marks and trade names in any way pertaining to the business of supplying the public with water, light, heat and power;

to aid, facilitate and assist in any manner in the construction, building, extension, improvement, equipment, maintenance and operation of any electric light plant, artificial or natural gas plant, hydro-electric plant, steam plant, water plant, gas or oil pipe line, for supplying the public with water, light, heat and power, telephone line, telegraph line, and for that purpose in any manner whatsoever to use the capital stock and bonds of this corporation or either of them or any part thereof; to aid in any manner any corporation, association, firm or individual engaged in public service business of which or of whom any bonds, evidences of indebtedness or other securities are held by the corporation, and to do any other acts or things designed to protect, preserve, improve or enhance the value of such bonds or evidences of indebtedness or other securities; to aid in any manner, by guaranteeing its bonds or obligations, or otherwise, any corporation which shall sell or lease any property to this corporation for use in or about its public service business; and in general, to carry on any other business in connection with the foregoing permitted by the laws of Minnesota, and to exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of Minnesota upon corporations formed under and pursuant to the provisions of chapter 58 of the General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913 and any amendments thereof.

It is declared that the objects and powers specified in this Article I shall, except where otherwise expressed in said article, be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other article of this certificate of incorporation, but that the several objects specified in this article shall be regarded as independent objects, nor shall anything in this article, except as expressly stated, be held to limit or restrict in any way the powers of this corporation.

ARTICLE II.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the 14th day of April, A. D. 1916, and the period of its duration shall be thirty (30) years from said date.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are:

A. G. Whitney, St. Cloud, Minnesota.
 R. L. Gale, St. Cloud, Minnesota.
 A. J. Bemis, St. Cloud, Minnesota.
 F. H. Collignon, St. Cloud, Minnesota.
 G. W. Plank, St. Cloud, Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV.

The principal place of business of the corporation shall be Brainerd, Minnesota.

ARTICLE V.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a board of five directors, all of whom shall be stockholders therein. The names of the first board of directors are: A. G. Whitney, R. L. Gale, A. J. Bemis, P. H. Collignon and G. W. Plank, all residing in the city of St. Cloud, Minnesota, who shall hold office until the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at such time in the year 1917 as shall be determined by the by-laws, at which time, and annually thereafter, a board of directors shall be elected from and by the stockholders of the corporation. Any director may be removed from office at any meeting of the stockholders where stockholders representing a majority of the entire issued and outstanding capital stock shall vote for such removal, and the stockholders present at such meeting may elect a successor or director. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the principal branch office of the corporation in the City of St. Cloud, Stearns County, Minnesota, at such time in each year as shall be determined by the by-laws. The officers of the corporation shall be a President and a Vice-President, who shall be elected from and by the directors, and a Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer, who shall be elected by the directors, but none of whom need be directors. Officers shall be elected at a meeting of the board of directors to be held as soon as possible after the organization of the corporation, which officers shall hold office until the annual meeting of the directors in 1917, and until their successors are elected and have qualified, and officers shall thereafter be elected at the annual meeting of the directors in 1917, and annually thereafter, to hold office for a term of one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified; provided, however, that any officer may at any time be removed from office by vote of a majority of the entire board of directors.

In case of any vacancy in the board of directors, caused by death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, (provided that in case of the removal from office of any director by vote of the stockholders, the stockholders shall have failed to elect a successor director as hereinbefore permitted,) said vacancy may be filled for the unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining directors. At a meeting of the board of directors a majority thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time. Any officers except those of President and Vice President may be held at the same time by one and the same person.

The board of directors shall have power to establish by-laws for the management of the affairs of said corporation, and the powers and duties of the several officers shall be prescribed by such by-laws.

By the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board, the board of directors may appoint from the directors an executive committee, of which a majority shall constitute a quorum, and to the extent provided in the by-laws such committee shall have and may exercise all or any of the powers of the board of directors, including the power to cause the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it.

The board of directors may from time to time fix and determine and vary the amount of the working capital of the corporation; and may direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in, and in its discretion the board of directors may use and apply any such surplus or accumulated profits in purchasing or acquiring the bonds or other obligations of the corporation to such extent and in such manner and upon such terms as the board of directors shall deem expedient.

If at any time any of the stockholders or directors of the corporation deem it advisable for the corporation to sell all or substantially all of its assets, a meeting of the stockholders shall upon their request be called forthwith in order that a proposition to that effect may be submitted to the stockholders, and if the said proposition is carried by the vote of the holders of two-thirds of all the stock issued and outstanding, the officers and directors of the corporation shall proceed to sell all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation in the manner and on terms determined by the vote of the stockholders, but no sale shall be made excepting on terms that shall permit (provided it shall be determined to dissolve the corporation) in the manner provided by statute, and distribute the assets of the corporation, the payment in cash in full to holders of First Preferred Stock of both the par value of all outstanding shares of First Preferred Stock and the unpaid dividends thereon.

Unless authorized by votes given in person or by proxy by stockholders holding at least two-thirds of all the issued and outstanding capital stock of the corporation at a meeting of the stockholders specially called for that purpose, or at an annual meeting of the stockholders, the board of directors shall not mortgage or pledge all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, but, if so authorized, the board of directors may mortgage or pledge all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI.

The total amount of the authorized capital stock of this corporation is One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) divided into one thousand (1000) shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100), each. Of said stock four hundred (400) shares shall be First Preferred Stock, and six hundred (600) shares shall be Common Stock.

From time to time the amount of capital stock hereby authorized may be increased according to law and as provided in this certificate and the First Preferred Stock and the Common Stock hereby authorized, and all capital stock which shall hereafter be authorized, may be issued from time to time by the board of directors, in such amounts and proportions and for such considerations and to such persons, firms or corporations as shall from time to time be determined by the board of directors and as shall be permitted by this certificate and by law.

The holders of the First Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive when and as declared, out of the surplus or net profits of the company, after all amounts which may be determined upon have been reserved as working capital, cumulative dividends from and after the date of issuance thereof, at the rate of, but not exceeding, seven (7) Percentum per annum, payable quarterly, semi-annually or annually, or at such other periods as the board of directors may from time to time determine, before any dividends shall be set apart for or paid upon the Common Stock. Shares of First Preferred Stock issued between the dates fixed for the payment of dividends shall be entitled at the next dividend date to a dividend at the rate aforesaid from the date of issue.

Unpaid cumulative dividends on First Preferred Stock shall not bear interest.

Whenever all dividends upon the First Preferred Stock with all accumulations, including accrued dividends up to the date of the payment of the Common Stock dividend, shall have been declared and shall have been paid in full, or a sum sufficient for the payment thereof shall have been set apart for that purpose and not otherwise, the board of directors may declare dividends on the Common Stock, payable then or thereafter, out of any remaining surplus or net profits.

No dividends shall be paid upon the Common Stock until after the first day of April, A. D. 1918.

In case of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up (whether voluntary or involuntary) of the corporation, the holders of the First Preferred Stock shall be entitled to be paid in full, both the par amount of their shares and the unpaid dividends at the rate of seven (7) percentum per annum cumulated and accrued thereon, before any amount shall be paid to the holders of the Common Stock, and after such payment to the holders of the First Preferred Stock the remaining assets and funds shall be paid to the holders of the Common Stock according to their respective shares.

The holders of the First Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any share in the surplus or net profits of the corporation other or further than hereinbefore provided, nor shall they be entitled to any payment or distributive share in the capital of the corporation in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up other or further than hereinbefore provided, nor shall they be entitled in any event to any right to subscribe for, or to take, or to receive any First Preferred Stock or Common Stock of the corporation, which is hereby authorized, or First Preferred Stock, Common Stock or other stock which shall be hereafter authorized, whether the First Preferred Stock, the Common Stock or other stock now or hereafter authorized shall be issued for cash, or in or on account of payment for property purchased, or by way of stock dividends, or by way of capitalization of the surplus or net profits. Excepting as authorized by the board of directors, the holders of Common Stock shall not be entitled to any right to subscribe for any stock of the corporation which is hereby authorized or shall be hereafter authorized.

The First Preferred Stock, in whole and not in part, shall be subject to redemption at the option of the board of directors upon any dividend day from and after January 1st, 1917. In case of such redemption made any time between January 1st, 1917 and January 1st, 1922, the holders of the First Preferred Stock shall be entitled to sixty (60) days' notice thereof in the manner provided by the by-laws, and to be paid the sum of One Hundred Ten Dollars ($110) per share for each share of such First Preferred Stock, together with the amount of any dividends accrued and unpaid thereon at the date of such redemption; and in case of such redemption made after January 1st, 1922, the holders of the First Preferred Stock shall be entitled to sixty (60) days' notice thereof in the manner provided by the by-laws, and to be paid One Hundred Five Dollars ($105) per share for each share of such First Preferred Stock, together with the amount of any dividends accrued and unpaid thereon at the date of such redemption. In the event of the exercise by the corporation of its right to redeem the First Preferred Stock, then from and after the date fixed for such redemption, the right of the holders of such First Preferred Stock so called for redemption to receive dividends thereon shall cease, and such First Preferred Stock shall not be transferable on the books of the corporation except to the corporation, and thereafter the holders of such First Preferred Stock shall have no rights in or in respect to the corporation, other than the right to receive the redemption price, and to dividends accrued to the date fixed for such redemption, without interest, upon the surrender of the certificate or certificates for such stock.

The Common Stock shall be subject to the prior rights of the First Preferred Stock, but the First Preferred Stock and the Common Stock shall have equal voting power.

ARTICLE VII.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject shall be the sum of Five hundred thousand Dollars ($500,000.)

ARTICLE VIII.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation, except that there shall be no change in the per centum or cumulation of dividends upon the First Preferred Stock in respect to the capital, property and assets of the corporation in case of liquidation, dissolution or winding up.

GAS COMPANY FILES INCORPORATION PAPERS

Brainerd Gas & Electric Co., of St. Cloud, Makes Brainerd Principal Place of Business

IS CAPITALIZED AT $100,000.00

Northern Pacific Railway Co. to Soon Build Spur Track, Gas Tank to be Built Soon

The Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. has been incorporated for $100,000, by St. Cloud capitalists, with Brainerd as its principal place of business and St. Cloud as its principal branch office. The incorporators are President, A. G. Whitney; vice president, R. L. Gale; secretary, A. J. Benis; treasurer, P. H. Collignon, and G. W. Plank.

Mr. Whitney is one of the most prominent capitalists of the northwest, being at the head of the Whitney utilities of St. Cloud and surrounding territory, his activities including the operation of gas and electric plants, electric street railway and other industries.

R. L. Gale is the president of the Cold Storage Co. of St. Cloud. A. J. Benis is a well known engineering expert and the general manager of all of the Whitney utilities. P. H. Collignon is of St. Cloud. G. W. Plank is the private secretary of Mr. Whitney.

Construction work will soon be under way for the large gas plant in Brainerd. The Northern Pacific railway is about to commence construction of a spur track to the gas plant site. Mains will soon be laid and the town served in summer.

Mr. Whitney has been in Florida some time and is expected in Brainerd and St. Cloud within two weeks and will devote much personal attention to the project. H. G. Williams, in charge of gas plants, will superintend operations in Brainerd and is enthusiastic over Brainerd and the prospects for doing business.

G. W. Plank, private secretary of A. G. Whitney, was in Brainerd today and recorded the incorporation papers.

STATE INSURANCE WAS HIS TOPIC

George W. Lawson Says Expense of Operation is Cheaper Than Private Liability Company

GREATER BENEFIT TO WORKER

Better for the Employer too in Being Assured Injured Worker is Better Cared For

George W. Lawson, secretary-treasurer of the State Federation of Labor, spoke on "State Insurance" at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Wednesday evening. There was a large attendance at the meeting and his address was followed with interest.

Mr. Lawson was introduced by President Henry I. Cohen. With Mr. Lawson was John M. Taylor of this city, vice president of the sixth district of the state federation, who arranged to have Mr. Lawson speak at the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Lawson said he appreciated the opportunity to talk to Chamber of Commerce members. Business men were as liable as others to misunderstand the intentions of the plans for state insurance. Mr. Lawson was glad to represent the American labor movement as typified by the American Federation of Labor.

For twenty years union labor worked to establish the principles of workmen's compensation in Minnesota. It was better than the old system, for it gave the injured workman a chance to get something. However employees as well as employers were not completely satisfied with its operations.

Under workmen's compensation without state insurance the worker was getting practically all the benefits he could. Employers were objecting to paying too much in premiums to liability companies and there was merit to their contention.

The question was how to get more compensation and not to take unfair advantage of the employer who wished to be fair.

"Take for example," said Mr. Lawson, "the man working at $15 a week who is injured. Under Minnesota law at the end of two weeks he will draw $7.50 a week. If he has a wife and three children, the average family, he will soon run into debt and will have to be supported on charity. If it is good logic and good law that the industry shall bear the hazard, why not put it on the industry or business and not the public. But there is a limit as to what the employer can pay.

"For every dollar you employers pay to insurance companies, 60c goes to the worker and 40c is charged to expense. Under state insurance you can do business on 10c expense, thus allowing a larger percentage to be paid the injured worker."

The State Federation of Labor had taken a stand for the Ohio plan of state insurance. Ohio had no agents to solicit business, no commissions were paid and there were no claim agents. The sacrifice of the worker was not necessary so that dividends shall be paid New York or London stockholders. Premiums paid on state insurance in Minnesota stayed in Minnesota.

Mr. Lawson said he had some experience with liability insurance companies. He was at Winona where cases of several injured workmen brought out the ubiquitous claim agent to look for loopholes by which the company might evade paying the compensation which employers had paid the companies to give the workers.

Minnesota possessed 7,000 liability insurance agents and when the state federation went "up against" such a combination it had to fight. Every employer of the state should co-operate with the federation in its fight for state insurance.

Some large corporations carried their own insurance and would not take advantage of the proposed provisions of state insurance. These included the American Holst & Derrick Co., the Oliver Iron Mining Co., and others. However, the small employer of 25 and 30 men especially should support the federation in its contention for state insurance.

In comparing figures of Ohio state insurance and Wisconsin and Michigan liability insurance the Ohio premium was much lower. For instance, on a painter working outside a shop the premium was $1.75 in Ohio, $4.34 in Wisconsin and $2.95 in Michigan. From March 1, 1912 to May 1, 1915, the Ohio state insurance law saved employers approximately $4,000,000 in premiums.

It was seldom the manufacturers associations endorsed the labor stand, but in Ohio the manufacturers gave their endorsement to the Ohio state insurance law.

In conclusion Mr. Lawson said the representatives of the people would vote the way people wanted them to.

SUDDEN DEATH

Caused by Disease of the Kidneys.

The close connection which exists between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. As soon as kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uric acid poisoning occurs and the person dies, and this cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

It is a good insurance against such a risk to send 10 cents for a sample package of "Anurio"—the latest discovery of Dr. Pierce. Also send a sample of your water. This will be examined without charge by expert chemists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. When you suffer from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, it's time to write Dr. Pierce, describe your symptoms and get his medical opinion without charge—absolutely free. This "Anurio" of Doctor Pierce's is found to be 37 times more active than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid in the system as hot water does sugar.

Simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Anurio Tablets. There can be no imitation.

Every package of "Anurio" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for blood and stomach.

WORRY, DESPONDENCY.

Kidney Disease is suspected by medical men when patients complain of backache or suffer with irregular urination, disturbed, too frequent, scanty or painful passage. The general symptoms are rheumatic pains or neuralgia, headaches, dizzy spells, irritability, despondency, weakness and general misery. Worry is a frequent cause and sometimes a symptom of kidney disease. Thousands have testified to immediate relief from these symptoms after using Dr. Pierce's Anurio Tablets.

MORE GOLD FOUND IN CITY OF HELENA

Helena, Mont., April 13.—Excitement has been occasioned in Helena by the discovery of placer gold in an excavation for a warehouse near the Great Northern passenger station.

While much of this ground was worked over in the early days the theory of mining men is that only a false bedrock was reached. It is likewise the belief that this new strike has been made in a cross stream as compared with Last Chance gulch—now Main street in Helena, which yielded $15,000,000 in the early day placer operations.

The gravel encountered in the new strike is very rich. The particles of gold are so thick that they covered an inch and a half of the bottom of the gold pan. Two nuggets were found where a water pipe had burst that are valued at $25 each.

The contractor in the warehouse excavation work expects to realize far more from the gold recovered from the work than he will for the undertaking proper.

MAY HAVE TO LIVE IN TENTS

Suffragists Unable to Secure Hotel Accommodations.

Chicago, April 13.—The army of suffragists expected to gather in Chicago for a demonstration during the Republican national convention, beginning June 7, may be compelled to camp in tents and in parks about the city because of inability to get hotel accommodations.

More than 40,000 women are expected to take part in the suffrage parade on the opening day of the convention. The suffragists are willing to occupy tents for the benefit of the "cause," according to Mrs. H. M. Brown, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association.

"I saw Mr. Langdon again on that night in the hour, I had not more than reached home and were telling my guide wife of the evening when there came a knock at the door. I opened it, and there stood Mr. Langdon. He was all in a feverish hurry—not to say commotion, and his face was white. Beyond him I could see two or three other men—all excited like."

"Did you recognize them?"
"Aye, there were men from the town—I had seen them often, and taken a wee drizzle with them at the hotel come Saturday night. But it were Mr. Langdon who spoke. 'Have you seen Miss Page?' he cried, catching at my sleeve. 'We are looking for her.' 'Did you mean to say you've lost her again?' I asked; and he said, 'Yes, I sat down to rest a bit and I must have lost consciousness. When I came to, she was gone.'"

"Did you go with any of the three men?"

"Havers, no, man! I came back for my cap and coat, and I got to the door

"emotion" had led. MacPherson's voice, too, was grim as he said: "I wouldn't call it 'emotion,' but there was a good bit of murmurin' against those who had driven so sweet a lassie distracted and sent her to maybe her death in the snow. The murmurin' grew louder when they saw the hurt and there were cries to know who had done it. When Mr. Langdon told them, the murmur grew louder and finally one of the lads cried out in a loud voice, 'This town has no room for wifebeaters and drunken brutes—he ought to be hung.'"

A stir of excitement swept through the court-room, for MacPherson, without a gesture, with no more than a rising inflection of his voice, had brought before them a vision of the snowy night and the little house from whose doorway the lamplight streamed out, mellowing the snow to gold, and touching with its fingers of light the grim faces of that group of men stirred to the deep anger of the mob at the thought of Dan Page's brutality.

"Did the other men make any threats?"

"Aye. Another one of them cried out, 'Killin' is too good for Dan Page. He should be horsewhipped out of town.' At that, my wife came up to me and says, 'For the lassie's sake, don't let them be takin' the law into their own hands or there'll be murder done this night.' So I cried 'Dinna take the matter too personal, lads—we've law and a gaol in this town. Somebody get the sheriff.'"

"Did they heed you?"
